Lily Organics Dew Fresh Only Colorado Skin Care Company to Receive Organic Certification
Seed to Shelf Skin Care

(Henderson, Colorado)- June 01, 2009- Lily Organics Dew Fresh, a Colorado Based facial care company, just received Certification as Organic Growers by the Colorado Department of Agriculture. As the handcrafter of 100 percent non-synthetic, chemical free skincare, Lily Organics Dew Fresh is the only skincare company in the state to be certified organic growers, positioning it as the preeminent leader in the organic skincare industry and supporting Colorado's environment efforts.

“We have been creating 100 percent organic products fresh every week for two decades, so we are thrilled to receive this official recognition from the Colorado Department of Agriculture,” said Lily Morgan, CEO and Founder of Lily Organics Dew Fresh. “It further emphasizes our commitment to preserving Colorado family farming and creating only the best skincare products out of the world's freshest ingredients.”

As a seventh generation American grower, Morgan is committed to preserving Colorado's Family farms and organic farmlands. Being green has been a passion of a way of life for Lily Organics Dew Fresh for more than 20 years. By utilizing her very own organic farm in Henderson, Colorado to create the unique product line, Morgan has created a company devoted to protecting Colorado's environment and living green.

“We must keep sustainable agriculture and organic for future generations,” said Morgan. “By growing organic ingredients, packaging in glass and producing little waste, we are doing are part to reduce the carbon footprint. “

About Lily Organics Dew Fresh

The organic growers at Lily Organic Dew Fresh make their products fresh every week on their very own organic farm. Founded in 1986 Lily Morgan, Lily Organics is a Colorado-based facial care company that creates hand- made, organic skincare products that incorporate ingredients from her very own organic farm, essential oils from natural botanicals and other organically grown herbs. These high performing and luxuriantly pure lotions, creams, oils and other facial products stop breakouts and don't dry out the skin. The company mission is based on a caring and reciprocal relationship with Earth that supports sustainable agriculture and produces very little waste. To protect Mother Nature further, all packing is in glass. For more information go to www.lilyorganics.com.
